

The Daily Beat

provided by the Governor's Office of Indian Affairs and the State-Tribal Economic Development Commission

July 10, 2007

The Daily Beat Archives

The Daily Beat provides daily updates, announcements and articles relevant to Indian country in Montana. For additional information regarding the Governor's Office of Indian Affairs go to:
www.tribalnations.nt.gov and www.tribal.mt.gov

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

Western Governors University Offering Scholarships for Rural Teaching

Western Governors University is offering $ 7,500 scholarships to qualified individuals in rural areas of Montana. Prospective recipients are those who reside in rural areas who want to become licensed teachers in math or science, or existing teachers who live in rural areas and want to earn a master's degree in math or science education. The scholarships are part of a U.S. Department of Labor grant recently awarded to WGU.

NEWS:

Blackfeet Singer To Perform At Yellowstone National Park

Jack Gladstone, a Grammy-nominated Blackfeet singer and songwriter, will be in Yellowstone later this month for a series of educational programs about local Indian culture through songs and stories. A master at blending legend, history, and metaphor into songs and stories, Gladstone presents a fresh perspective of "spiritual humanism," with reverence and concern for the world and all the living beings within it.